

MISS SWAN TO WED, NEWPORT SOCIETY IS GIVEN 4 DAYS' NOTICE

Mother Announces Engagement to Andrew Robeson Jr.
—Wedding Monday.

NEWPORT, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Eliza Dyer has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Laura Patterson Swan, to Andrew Robeson Jr. of Boston. The wedding will take place Dec. 1, at Wayside, the Newport residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Dyer. The ceremony will be witnessed only by the families, and immediately afterward the bride and bridegroom will leave for New York and sail for Europe, where they will remain until the late spring, returning to spend the season in Newport.

The engagement of these two popular young society people does not come as a surprise, as they have been very much in each other's company for the past two years.

Throughout her brilliant social career in New York, Newport, Baltimore, Washington and abroad, Miss Swan has followed Miss Swan, and numerous have been the times when she was reported engaged. The first of these when she was a debutante in 1916, declared she was to become the wife of W. G. Max Muller, then second Secretary of the British Legation at Washington, next that she had become betrothed to Baron Monague of Paris, then that she was to marry Viscount Portman, who paid her marked attention at Newport, and again she was reported as affianced to Lewis Brugere, the California millionaire.

She is the daughter of Donnell Swan, from whom her mother, a Turner of Virginia, secured a divorce in 1914, after marrying Eliza Dyer Jr., the custody of her daughter being granted her. Donnell Swan died two years ago. He had also remarried, his second wife being Miss Ella Pallett Wilson, many years his junior and a Baltimore belle.

GARY'S CHEF IN PRISON.

Schemed With Butcher's Driver to Swindle the Steel Man.

Claude Copert, whom as chef for Judge Gary in his home at No. 856 Fifth avenue, was sent to the City Prison for twenty days by Justice O'Keefe, Moss and Wicken in Special Sessions to-day, and his friend, John Bourgeois, driver for a butcher with whom Copert dealt, on behalf of Judge Gary was put on probation for a year. The two men were convicted of collaborating in a scheme to swindle Judge Gary out of wines and foodstuffs.

Copert would sign for goods which were not received at the Fifth avenue home and Bourgeois would deliver them at Copert's home at No. 301 East Sixty-sixth street and the men would divide them.

Judge Gary's housekeeper, Norah Rutledge, caught them on Oct. 27 and had them arrested.

MAGAZINE EDITOR INDICTED.

Cartoonist of The Masses Also Accused of Publishing Libel.

Max Baerman, editor, and Arthur Young, cartoonist, of a monthly magazine called The Masses, published at No. 51 Greenwich avenue, were indicted to-day on a charge of publishing a libel, on complaint of the officials of the Associated Press. Both were arraigned before Judge Crain in General Sessions and released in $1,000 bail each to await pleading and trial.

According to the indictment the mag-

WIFE SLAYER KILLS SELF SURROUNDED BY POSSE.

Illinois Man After Murder Barricaded Himself in Opera House and Held Off Hundreds of Men.

CUBA, Ill., Nov. 23.—Surrounded by a posse of sheriff's deputies, Frank McAdams, who last night shot and killed his wife at a dance in the Opera House, ended his own life to-day by blowing out his brains. After the murder McAdams barricaded himself in the Opera House and engaged in a battle with the posse, which comprised several hundred men.

Constable Hagerman was shot during the fight, the bullet tearing away his lower teeth.

Meat Seller Fined $880.

Adolph Solomon, a butcher, of No. 1 West One Hundred and Thirty-seventh street, was fined $880 to-day by Justice Salmon, Collins and Parker in Special Sessions. He was charged with selling 150 pounds of unwholesome pork in his possession.
